FOUR people were on Wednesday killed as unidentified gunmen attacked Dunga Village in Tafawa Balewa Local government area of Bauchi State.

It was gathered that the attackers, who stormed the village in the morning, allegedly shot four people to death in one house and fled when the security operatives patrolling the area responded.

The state Commissioner of Police, Muhammad Ladan, confirmed the incident, saying that four people, including a woman and her three children, were killed by the gunmen.

He added that no arrest has been made so far, but said that effort is being intensified to fish out the culprits.

Ladan, who appealed to the people of the area to remain calm, promised that measures will be taken to avert recurrence of such incident.

The police boss condemned the despicable act and urged people to always report suspicious movements to the security agents.
