

Robbers raid Lagos suburb, kill guard, many injured

By Andrew Utulu,
Correspondent, Lagos

ARMED robbers have again hit Iju-Ishaga, a suburb of Lagos State, under Area G Police Command with headquarters at Ogba, leaving in its tolls anguish and tales of woes.

A night guard, Adebayo Akinola, was shot dead by the rampaging men of the underworld.

Also, several persons were injured in the operation that started at about 1.am on Monday.

The incident, it was gathered, took place at Ogunbusola and Ogun-tade streets.

Further investigation revealed that in the past one month, robbers had terrorised the entire area, including Omodara, Aliu, Adepeju and Akinsanya streets, for not less than five times, killing, robbing and maiming their victims.

The robbers, after killing the guard, and wounding his colleagues, were said to have broke into storey buildings located on No 7 and 9 Ogunbusola Street belonging to two brothers and unleashed mayhem on the residents.