

held in Wales and Sarajevo-Yugoslavia, and jointly won

Man, 26, docked for manslaughter

By Ogechi Njirika

Special Correspondent, Lagos

A 26 YEAR-old-man, Gideon Ebie, has been arraigned before an Oshodi Magistrate Court for allegedly driving in a reckless manner which led to the death of one Emmanuel Egbulugha.

Egbulugha, 43, was said to have been killed by Ebie along Gbagada/Oworonsoki Express way with a Mistibushi Canter truck with registration number APP677X.

The victim was said to have travelled to Lagos from the Eastern part of Nigeria to visit his friend when the incident occurred.

The offence was said to be contrary to and punishable under Section 28(1) Cap 172 volume 7, of the Road and Traffic Laws of Lagos State of Nigeria.

Meanwhile, the defendant, Ebie, has been remanded at the Kirikiri Maximum Prisons, Lagos, while court has ordered that the case file be transferred to the Director of Public Prosecution (DPP), Ministry of Justice in the state, for legal advice.

The case was also adjourned to May 8.