The son of former People's Democratic Party (PDP) Chairman in Bauchi State, Garba Noma, has been shot dead by unknown gunmen.

It was learnt that the late son, Sanusi Garba Noma, was killed in Abuja.

This is coming less than a month after unknown gunmen also abducted one of the son's of Garba Noma.

The 33 years old Sanusi Garba Noma was abducted in front of his father's house in Bauchi.

The Bauchi State Head of Service, Mr. Abdon Dalla Gin, on Wednesday condoled with the families of Noma over the killing of his son.

Mr. Abdon Dalla Gin in a sympathy visit to his house described the killing as most unfortunate.

He described the deceased as a young Nigerian who has attained the age of contributing towards nation building before his elimination.

He then prayed to God to grant the deceased eternal rest and give his families the fortitude to bear the irreparable lose.

Responding, Alhaji Garba Muhammad Noma thanked the Head of Service for paying such condolence visit and prayed to God to reward him abundantly.
