

By Emmanuel Nzomiwu
Correspondent, Enugu

for votes and concurrence.

Spokesman of the House of Representa-

later by prison officials under very tight security

Also, the House of Representatives, on Thursday, expressed support for the

By Temidayo Akinsuyi
Snr. Correspondent, Lagos

the states.

The House spokesman at Thursday briefing said than must ensure the girls are brought back alive if he desires to be re-elected for the House from pursuing such an agenda to its logi-

Boko Haram kills 33, abducts 100 in Borno village

INSURGENTS suspected to be Boko Haram members invaded a Borno State community, killing 33 and abducting another 100, a survivor told the BBC.

He said suspected
Boko Haram militants
had seized young men, women and children from Gumsuri village.

The attack happened

on earlier in the week but news has only just emerged, after survivors reached the city of Maiduguri.

Meanwhile, Cameroon's Army says it has killed 116 Nigerian militants who had attacked one of its bases, AFP reports.

After killing our youths, the insurgents have taken away our wives and daughters."

Residents told the BBC
the armed militants attacked the border town of Amchide on Wednesday, arriving in two vehicles with many others on foot.

They raided the market area, setting fire to shops and more than 50 houses.

No group has said it carried out either attack but officials have blamed Nigerian-based Boko
Haram militants.

More than 2,000 people have been killed in militant violence this year alone, mostly in northeastern Nigeria, near the border with Cameroon.

Mark, Onaiyekan task politicians against