

Bazango, Kubwa, Abuja. The suspect will soon be arraigned in court accordingly.

Explaining the matter of a culpable homicide, the commissioner said on December 25, 2014, at about 1930hrs, one Emmanuel Omale of Liberty Junction, Byazhin, reported at Kubwa Police Division that on the same day, at about 1900hrs, Ameh Joseph, Patrick Abutu and John Ameh, while celebrating Christmas in a bar at Gado Nasko road, got into an argument with John Akor of the Federal Fire Service Abuja, aged 50 years old, and Akorgwu Noah of the National Hospital Abuja, aged 51 years.

In the course of the argument, Noah used a broken bottle to stab Akor in the neck region, the victim was immediately rushed to General Hospital, Kubwa, where he was confirmed dead. The suspect will soon be arraigned in court for culpable homicide.

The cases of One Chance robbery suspects were not left out and Inalegwu noted that on December 29, at about 1340hrs, Gar-ki police patrol team arrested one made another breakthrough on the eve of Christmas, following the arrest of one Bola Adesina, 31, at a motor park in Utako, Abuja, for kidnapping a five-year-old boy from Sagamu, Ogun State, en-route to Kaduna for delivery to a waiting customer, possibly for ritual purposes.

The suspect will be arraigned in court as soon as the courts resume sitting. Meanwhile, the child has been re-united with his parents.

The police commissioner, while wishing the residents of the FCT a blissful 2015, however, advised them to remain vigilant, continue to have faith in the police, and vehicle owners should avoid parking at isolated places when making calls as they might be followed by criminal elements; any time they park in a public place either to shop or do other business, at intervals, they should come out to check on their vehicles.

He further advised residents to check vehicles before boarding, to avoid falling victim of One Chance robbers.