A student of Moslem Grammar school, Odinjo, Ibadan, Oyo State, who allegedly stabbed his fellow student to death with a knife on Friday during an argument, is now on the run as the state police command has launched a manhunt for him.

The murdered student, identified as Toib Aresa, was said to be a Senior Secondary Two (SS2) student in the same school, located along Lagos-Ibadan expressway in Odinjo.

The incident caused pandemonium in the school on Friday afternoon and police from Sanyo area of Ibadan were invited, to restore normalcy to the school.

Eyewitnesses claimed that the boy alleged to have stabbed Aresa escaped on sighting the police, following which a manhunt has been launched for his arrest. It was learnt that Aresa and his assailant, whose name could not be ascertained by press time, were locked in an argument when he brought out a knife from his bag and stabbed Aresa in the stomach.

The situation was tense at the school by Friday evening, as parents besieged the school to confirm the safety of their children.

A police officer at Sanyo police station said he was aware of the incident but referred our reporter to the police headquarters at Eleyele, Ibadan, for details, which were being awaited at the time of filling this report.
