

and are currently receiving treatment in an undisclosed hospital.

That same fateful Tuesday night, another indigene of Ngor Okpala LGA, Mr Bennett Nnaji popularly known as "Coach" who hails from Umuekwune Umuorisha in Umuohiagu Autonomous Community was gruesomely murdered by unidentified assassins on the prowl in the area.

Nnaji, 54 year old man is the only son of his aged mother met his untimely death at Umuowa, few metres away from the Airport Junction, along Aba Road while returning home from his maternal home, Ndiama Ulakwo in Owerri North LGA.

The deceased- a father of three who until his death lived in Abuja, had visited home to share moments with his mother during the general elections before he was eventually cut down in his prime by dare-devil gunmen.

Though he was killed Tuesday night, our correspondent learnt that his decomposing body was only discovered Wednesday morning by passersby as the assailants had chased him into the bush where they shot him severally and hid his head under his Mercedes Jeep marked ABUJA-CN 870 RSH.
