

News

El-Rufai, decries Kaduna violence

By Juliet Oyoyo

Snr Correspondent, Kaduna

MALAM Nasir El-Rufai, the Kaduna State Governor elect yesterday condemned the violence that erupted on Monday and Tuesday in Saminaka, headquarters of Lere local government area of Kaduna state.

According to Samuel Aruwa, el rufai's spokesman some miscreants were said to have incited the violence, which led to the imposition of a 24-hour curfew and the deployment of police and soldiers to the local government.

He said several lives are reported to have been lost in the outbreak of the violence, while several others sustained varying degrees of injury.

Aruwa who disclosed that the attention of Kaduna state governor-elect, Malam Nasir El-Rufai has been drawn to the unfortunate outbreak of violence in Saminaka, headquarters of Lere local government area of the state said his principal strongly condemns the resort to violence and appeals to the residents of Saminaka to unite for peace. While calling on the security agencies to stop the violence and speedily restore stability.

Osunbor, Edo