

VS

dependentnigeria.com

Suicide Bomber Kills 10 In Adamawa Cattle Market

Clement Ekong

Yola

NO fewer than ten people are feared dead in Garkida town of Gombi local government area of Adamawa State on Tuesday following a bomb blast carried out by a suicide bomber at the busy cattle market in the area.

Reports from the area monitored in Yola, the Adamawa State Capital, said several people were injured in the attack which shocked many who believed that Boko Haram insurgents were becoming a thing of the past in the area.

A cattle dealer, Mal-lam Sadau, who said he narrowly escaped death lamented that there should be more security in areas recaptured from the insurgents else its like starting the fight all over again.

According to him, during the confusion, many people lost their money and other valuables. The unfortunate incident happens to be the first experience of a suicide bomber attack on Adamawa State since the advent of insurgency in the North east sub-region.

The ugly incident no doubt has sent cold spine down the back of many residents of Yola, the state capital who are now apprehensive of what might be their fate in relation to the Garki suicide bomber attack.

Efforts to get confirmation from the military authorities proved abortive as their lines were not going through.

However, when contacted, Adamawa State Police Command spokesman, DSP Othman Mohammed could not confirm the incident, rather he directed out reporter to get in touch with the military authorities.

In a similar development, another 10 people were reported killed in a renewed attack by Boko

Haram on Ajiya Waga town as Boko Haram continued their onslaught in Madagali Local Government area of Adamawa state.

The insurgents have the weekend launched an attack on Sabongari town of Madagali leading to the death of one person while six women were reported abducted.

Mr Warga Sunday fleeing resident of Ajiya Waga said the gunmen struck their town in the middle of the night while most of the residents have gone to sleep and started shooting sporadically in the process killing many.

Director of Programmes, Technical Aid Corps, Oladele Abiodun (middle), with staff and Volunteers deployed to serve in Adamawa State, during their departure at the Nnamdi Azikiwe International Airport Abuja on Monday.