Four suspected ritualists with mutilated human body parts were on Tuesday paraded by the Oyo State Police Command at the Eleyele, Ibadan, Headquarters of the Command where the State Commissioner of Police, Leye Oyeade told journalists that the alleged criminals were arrested in an uncompleted building at Owode area of Oyo town.

The Oyo CP said policemen raided a black spot where information was previously received that criminals usually gathered and there the suspects, who were all disguised as prophets, were nabbed and some human body parts were found in their possession.

He said the suspects confessed to the crime and one of the suspects, Odetunde Jacob, actually told the police that they had killed somebody (name not disclosed) at Ogbomoso area of the state.
