The suspected cultists were said to have gone on rampage around the palace immediately after they killed the barber attacking some residents of the area.

Dolapo Badmos, police image maker in Lagos, while confirming the incident said it occurred Wednesday about 4pm and the incident was reported at ijede Police division.

According to Badmos, the police received a distress call from one Sunday Olaifa that his brother who works as a stylist in a barbing saloon has been shot dead by unknown assailants.

A combined team of operatives from area N and ijede Police station were drafted to the scene of the incident immediately.

She said: "one Saheed Araba and Femi Omolajau were arrested and one locally made pistol, two live cartridges and a cutlass were found in their possession, while one expended cartridge was also recovered from the scene."

Badmos however said that the Commissioner of Police Fatai Owoseni had directed that the case to be transferred to State Criminal Investigative Department Panti, for further investigation.
