decision to dismiss the workers was taken at the 115th governing council meeting of the university, which held on Thursday.

"Pursuant thereto, the Governing Council with immediate effect dismissed 15 members of the academic staff, two members of non-academic staff, and sanctioned two others for different acts of misconduct," Adekiya said.

He said Oyewunmi was dismissed for demanding N50,000 from students while Adeyemi-Suenu was sacked for "unilaterally" altering "the results of 12 students already advised to withdraw by Senate."

Adekoya said the council established that Oyewunmi demanded N50, 000 from 2003 modular year students of Political Science Education on the sandwich programme to process their results.

He said the council found Oyewunmi culpable of an attempt to obtain money for himself as an inducement to carry out his duties and consequently dismissed him from the of Friday.

It was gathered that the men who shot him were part of those who attended the early morning mass in the church.

Further investigation revealed that after the mass, they were said to have requested to see the priest for ey?"

But after waiting for a few seconds without any response from the priest, they shot him in the abdomen.

At this point, the Reverend Father started shouting for help, which prompted the armed bandits to escape before help came visited the scene of the crime.

When contacted on phone for confirmation and comments, Olarinde Famous-Cole, the Lagos State Police Command Public Relations Officer (PPRO) refused to comment on phone, but said this report.

It would be recalled that a Catholic Priest in Owerri, Imo State, Rev. Cyriacus Onunkwo, was six days ago shot dead by armed men.

Members of the armed gang, led by a sacked Police Constable, were arrested and paraded on Thursday.

builds a society while ego destroys it, ex-President Jonathan further said: "The best leadership flows from inspiration and not from power or force of arms. You can only inspire people when your leadership is governed by your conscience and the support of the led.

"Power centric leadership is ego based. Looking at human history in the last 100 years, you would notice that ego based leadership has brought untold hardship to humanity and set us back decades. On the contrary, conscience based leadership has again and again, been shown to be the only type of leadership that can engender world peace, progress and unity."

Jonathan reminded leaders that a recent report on the Global Peace Index indicated that the cost of creating and containing violence in 2016 alone stood at $14.3 trillion which was about 12.6% of world GDP.

"If anything, this colossal effort which is directed at fighting already lit fires,

Factions Trade Blame In Bloody Ibadan OPC Clash

GBENGA ABEGUNRIN
IBADAN

One of the seven members of the Oodua People's Congress (OPC), who sustained injuries in a factional clash that occurred on Thursday during the Yoruba Summit that took place at the Lekan Salami Stadium, Ibadan, died in the early hours of Friday at a private hospital located within the city.

The deceased, Lekan Adebayo, a member of the Otunba Gani Adams faction of the OPC, was reportedly shot at the head during the Thursday's skirmishes.

Also, the Public Relations Officer of the New Era OPC, Adesina Akinpelu, who was severely injured during the attack was said to be on admission at the emergency unit of the Oyo State Police Command Hospital, Eleyele, Ibadan.

The Secretary of the Oyo State chapter of the Gani Adams-led OPC, Comrade Olajide Julius, who confirmed Lekan's death, revealed that five other members of the faction were in critical conditions in the hospital.

Olajide wondered why another faction of the group could decide to attack the OPC at a programme organised to champion the cause of the Yoruba nation, and which had prominent sons and daughters in the race in attendance.

According to him, the aim and objective of the OPC is to promote and protect the interests of the Yoruba race, saying that was the reason Adams of his supporters attended the Ibadan Yoruba summit en masse.

However, speaking with newsmen, National President of the New Era OPC, Comrade Rasak Arogundade, who lamented that it was unfortunate that Adams came to such a Yoruba event with a killer squad, and blamed organisers of the summit for the Thursday's ugly incidence.

APC Chides Atiku, Alhassan

it a high sense of decorum in your conduct. You have to guard what you say, how