Gunmen Kill Vigilante Provost In Delta

JOHN AMUDO

WARRI

Unknown gunmen yesterday shot dead the Delta State Provost of the Vigilante Group of Nigeria simply identified as Folorunsho, near Odibo Estate in Effurun, Uvwie Local Government Area of Delta State.

The deceased who doubles as the Public Relations Officer of the Vigilante in "A" Division Warri Area, was unarmed and alone at the time when the gunmen opened fire on him. The matter was quickly reported at the Enerhen Police Station, while the remains of the deceased was deposited was immediately deposited at the mortuary.

The incident has caused panic to other Vigilante members who are currently mourning their colleague.

The Enerhen Divisional Police Officer, CSP Emmanuel Yakubu declined comments on the matter but a source within the Police Station who craved anonymity confirmed the report.

The Police source described the incident as "unfortunate" noting that the police have spread their net in search of the killers of the man.

The Delta State Commissioner of Police, Zanna Mohammed Ibrahim said he was not aware of the incident.
