3 One Michael Okeke has been allegedly killed by a passenger, few days after his election as the unit Chairman of Motorcycle Operators in Meiran, a Lagos suburb.

Our correspondent gathered that Okeke, a resident of 4, Church Street, Meiran, carried a passenger at the weekend, and unknown to him, the person may have been a killer.

Though, it was not clear the exact time the rider picked the passenger, sources however alleged that the rider was hit at back of his head by the unknown passenger and he slumped while the person zoomed off with the Okada.

Okeke was reportedly rushed to an undisclosed hospital in the area, where he was confirmed death and the doctor and remains deposited at the mortuary.

However, Anthony Okonkwo, Divisional Police Officer of Meiran Police Station told our correspondent on phone that he was not aware of the incident.
