

Troops Kill 3 Boko Haram Insurgents, Recover Arms

The Nigerian Army on Saturday said its troops had killed three Boko Haram insurgents at Missini village of Dikwa Local Government Area of Borno.

Brig. Gen. Sani Kukasheka Usman, the Director Army Public Relations, said in a statement issued in Maiduguri.

Usman said that the insurgents on Friday laid ambush for a military patrol team at Missini village along Dik-wa-Ngala Road.

He added that the troops repelled the attack, killed three insurgents and recovered ammunition from the scene of the attack.

"Troops of 3 Battalion under 22 Brigade on Friday, 20th October, 2017; at about 11:30 a.m. while on routine patrol came under Boko Haram terrorists ambush close to Missini Village along Dikwa - Ngala Road, northern part of Borno State," Kukasheka said.

Osun 2018: Aregbesola's Factor 'll Decide Winner Says Group