

Mother, Daughter Arrested For Flogging Teacher To Death In Anambra

By Gloria Anaeze - December 5, 2017

Starlight Secondary School, Ogidi

Onitsha – The police in Ogidi, Idemili North Local Government Area of Anambra State, have arrested a mother, Mrs. Okafor, her daughter, Chinaza Okafor, and another person yet to be identified for allegedly flogging a teacher to death.

The teacher was identified as Miss Rita Odilinye.

The deceased, until her death, was an Igbo teacher and class mistress at Starlight Secondary School, Ogidi.

It was gathered that trouble started on Friday morning when the teacher came to school and found out that her class was not swept and she demanded from the students in the class why the class was not swept.

When queried by the teacher, Chinaza was said to have been unruly, and that angered the teacher and she flogged her.

It was learnt that while she was being flogged, she ran out of the class and scaled the school fence, as the gate was locked, and made straight to their house where she reported to her mother that she had been beaten black and blue by her teacher for not sweeping the classroom.

Furious, Chinaza's mother was said to have armed herself with sticks and accompanied her to the school, with one other person.

On arriving the school, she did not see the teacher as she was said to have gone out to attend a meeting of private schools.

Chinaza's mother then boasted that she (the teacher) would have been thought the lesson of her life.

Efforts made by the co-teachers to calm down and allow the school authority to handle the case proved abortive as she swore to avenge the flogging.

As the teacher was nowhere to be found, the woman, her daughter and the person that accompanied them to the school were leaving the school premises they met the teacher at the gate.

Immediately the daughter pointed at her, her mother pounced on the teacher like a wounded lion and started beating her up, with the help of her daughter and the other unidentified person.

The teacher was alleged to have slumped and died as a result of the beating.

The trio was said to have fled the scene immediately the teacher slumped.

She was rushed to Iyi-Enu Mission Hospital where she was confirmed dead.

Confirming the incident, the Divisional Police Officer (DPO) in charge of the Area, Mark Ijarafu, said: "We have arrested the mother, daughter, and one other person.

"The corpse of the teacher has been deposited at Iyi-Enu mortuary while investigation is ongoing."

REVEALED: 3 natural ways to get stronger erections, last 25minutes on bed, and increase manhood size without using drugs

Gloria Anaeze