

Robbers Kill Filling Station Manager In Bauchi

By Patience Ogbodo-Iwuagwu - February 15, 2018

0

tweet

Bauchi – A female was among the four suspected armed robbers earlier arrested by the police in Bauchi State and paraded on Wednesday before newsmen and for allegedly killing one Usman Suleiman, Manager of a filling station.

Kamal Daitti, police spokesman for the state, told newsmen while parading the suspects that Usman was until his death the Manager of KAMS Universal Concept Filling station, located along Bauchi-Jos road.

Kamal, a Deputy Superintendent of Police (DSP) said the four suspects also injured one Mohammed Salisu, 25, of Gutu village in Bauchi Local Government and robbed him of undisclosed cash, handsets and other valuable items.

“Following a discreet investigation by police operatives attached to State Intelligence Bureau (SIB) of the command, Onyeka David aka Swag “m” 27 years, Onyeka Okeke “m” 34 years, Happy Henry “m” 32 years and Grace Otopa “f” 24 years, were arrested