Lagos – Operatives of the Inspector General (IGP) Ibrahim Idris' Intelligence Response Team (IRT) have gunned down a dreaded alleged kidnap gang leader during a gun duel with suspected kidnappers.

The team also arrested two members of the gang alive.

DAILY INDEPENDENT investigation revealed that the police engaged the notorious kidnappers in Kaduna State and recovered AK47 riffle at the end of the gun battle.

It was gathered that on March 12, 2018, based on credible information received about the hideout of the alleged notorious kidnap kingpin identified as Hassan Saleh aka 'Yellow' and his gang members, said to be hiding deep inside Rijianna forest in Kaduna, combined teams of IRT personnel and vigilante men stormed the kidnappers' camp.

It was further learnt that on sighting the operatives, the suspected kidnappers opened fire on the team, which returned fire, gunning down the leader and two members.

It was disclosed that other members of the gang escaped.

The arrested suspects confessed to have engaged in several kidnappings within Abuja-Kaduna highway.

They equally named other members of their gang who were on the run.

Police say efforts were in progress to get the remaining gang members at large to Justice.
