

Dreaded Robber Shoot Dead

MISHAEL OGBOMA
SAPELE

The police men stormed the residents after a distress call resulting in a shootout with the police men.

The dreaded robber was shot in the leg as he attempted to escape and reportedly died at the Sapele Central Hospital where he was taken to for treatment.

The Delta Sapele police public relations officer Andrew Anieamaka confirmed the story, adding that large cache of cartridges were recovered including a face mask and also warned that he would make the state unbearable for unlawful practices.

A suspected armed robber (simply identified as Onos), was shot dead over the weekend during a shoot-out with the police at Akpoisi Road in Sapele, Sapele Local Government Area of Delta State.

Onos and his gang members were said to have stormed a house along Akpoisi Road, where they were robbing occupants of the apartment of their belongings.