Awka – Tragedy struck the family of Oyiogu in Ifitedunu, in Dunukofia local council when a young man identified as Ejiofor stabbed his elder brother, Ekene severally thereby killing him instantly.

It is not clear what the trouble was all about but it was learnt that Ekene had allegedly been lording it over his younger brothers, especially since the death of their father last year.

It was learnt that the memorial service of their father was slated for Sunday, a day before Ekene was killed.

It was also learnt that trouble started brewing following the burial of their patriarch who was a popular politician.

The matter came to a head on Saturday when Ekene was said to have drawn the first blood by stabbing his younger brother, Ejiofor who grabbed the knife and cut him severally on the neck, hand, navel and head.
