

Woman In Court For Allegedly Killing Neighbour's Son With Juju

By Our Correspondents - April 12, 2018

A 30-year-old woman, Princess Ofonome, was on Wednesday arraigned in a Mararaba Upper Area Court, Nasarawa State, for allegedly intimidating and killing her neighbour's son through 'diabolic means.'

The defendant, who resides at Apostolic Compound, Kabayi, Mararaba, Nasarawa State, was arraigned on a count charge bordering on criminal intimidation, an offence he denied committing.

The prosecutor, Hamen Donald, told the court that one Juliet Joseph of same address with the defendant reported the matter at 'A' Police Division, Mararaba on April 9, at about 11: a.m.

He said that the complainant alleged that the defendant killed her son, through incantation.

"The words include, 'any fly that does not hear will follow dead body to the grave, and the grasses on the grave of the first strike has not grown and the second will follow immediately.

"Then the defendant went behind the compound and made some incantations, using pepper, onion, palm oil and salt, and formed a circle with charcoal," Donald said.

According to the prosecutor, the offence is contrary to and punishable under Section 397 of the Penal Code.

The judge, Ibrahim Shekarau, granted the defendant N50, 000 bail with one surety in like sum and adjourned the case until April 24, for hearing.

Comments

1 comments