Justice Yusuf Halilu of the FCT High Court, Jabi on Monday sentenced one Hassan Gimba, 34, to death by hanging for killing an Israeli man, Mr NIR Rosemarin.

The deceased who was said to have been killed on September 9, 2015 was an Israeli and an employee of Gilmor Construction Company Nigeria Limited.

The convict was first arraigned on June 29, 2016 by the office of the Attorney-General of the Federation (AGF) where he pleaded not guilty to the two count charge of criminal conspiracy and culpable homicide punishable with death.

The charges contravene the provision of section 97 and 221(1a) of the Penal Code Law.

The convict pleaded not guilty to the charges.

Justice Halilu sentenced Gimba based on the confessional statement made by him during a trial-within-trial that he committed the crime.
