

Bauchi: Police Commence Investigations Into Killings By Suspected Cultists

By Patience Ogbodo - Iwuagwu - May 11, 2018

0

Bauchi – The Bauchi State Police Command has commenced investigation into the recent mysterious killings by suspected cultists in the state capital. The cultists allegedly stabbed their victims with sharp objects.

This was disclosed by the Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO) of the command, DSP Kamal Datti Abubakar, in Bauchi on Thursday while answering questions from journalists.

He said: "We have heard rumours of mysterious killings as a result of stabbing people with sharp objects by unknown motorcycle riders along Fadaman Mada Axis and Gida Dubu Housing Estate in the state. We have received only one case which was reported to us.

"Someone visited Tafawa Balewa Estate Police Division and informed us that his brother was stabbed with sharp objects by unknown motorcycle rider and he died but we received the report after the victims was buried."

The PPRO assured on police commitment to providing safety and security to the Bauchi residents, explaining that they have commenced investigation into the matter, while revealing