

In Gombe State, one person was killed.

DSP Mary Malum, Spokesperson of the Gombe State Police Command, told newsmen that the death was recorded in Deba town of Yamaltu/Deba Local Government Area.

Malum said the exercise was conducted peacefully but thereafter an argument that ensued among party members turned bloody, resulting in the death of one person, Salisu Dage, and the injury of three others.

She said two people had been arrested in connection with the incident and that police had commenced investigations on the cause of the incident.

An eyewitness, Abubakar Audu, told newsmen that the incident occurred shortly after the party congress was concluded.

"Though the police intervened immediately, one person lost his life while those that got injured were rushed to the hospital," he said.
