Security operatives have apprehended a notorious kidnapper who together with his gang abducted a Delta lawmaker, Hon Onose Onakpoma on March 31, 2018, hid him in a forest in Okurekpo, Ethiope East Local government area of Delta state and shot him dead at the hideout.

The notorious gang leader identified as Omote Eboh has been on the run despite the arrest and detention of his wife after leading a team to the scene in the thick forest to recover the remains of Hon Onokpoma on May 11, 2018.

Most of the perpetrators of the heinous crime have been apprehended including those who aided the escape of the leader, Omote Eboh

The team led by the Vigilantes Group of Nigeria, Okpara Inland trailed, Mr. Omote Eboh to his village in Benin, Edo state where he has been hiding and was captured like a goat.

The Omote Eboh, a kidnap-for-ransom network in the thick forest between Okurekpo and Okuekpagha boundary (Omue' te'te) carried out a major robbery operation on 31st March 2018 where they robbed over 20 people including Hon. Onose Onakpoma and thereafter kidnapped him and hauled him to the thick forest where he was promptly killed before the kidnappers called to pick up a ransom of N500,000.00 and thereafter vanished into the thin air with no trace of Hon. Onakpoma and a little or no trace of the Kidnappers.

Hon Onakpoma's corpse is lying at the Eku Baptist Government Hospital morgue while officials are preparing legal documents to release the body to the family for burial.
