

Suspected Gunmen Kill One Person, Rustle 9 Cows In Plateau

By Agency Report - June 30, 2018

Suspected herdsmen have killed one person and rustled nine cows in Jos, Plateau, DSP Terna Tyopev, the Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO) for the Police Command in the state has said.

He said this while confirming the incident to the News Agency of Nigeria (NAN) on Saturday in Jos.

Tyopev said the cows belonged to the Anglican Archbishop of Jos, Benjamin Kwashi.

The police image maker said the incident occurred in the early hours of Saturday at Kangan community of Jos South Local Government Area of the state.

"Today, at about 7a.m, we received information that nine cattle, belonging to the Anglican Archbishop of Jos were rustled by men suspected to be herdsmen.

"In the process, one Adamu Dung, 46, vigilante in the area was shot and killed by the rustlers," he said.

The PPRO said the corpse of the deceased had been deposited at the Bingham University Hospital, Jos.

He also said that the command had commenced investigation into the matter with a view to arresting the suspects for prosecution.

Comments

0 comments