

Delta Police Confirm Man Killed Self, Son's Wife

By Our Correspondents - July 6, 2018

Commissioner of Police in Delta, Mr Mohammad Mustafa, has confirmed the killing of a woman by her father-in-law, Mr Adesco, who also killed himself in Erovie quarters in Ozoro in Delta.

Mustafa said that the command had begun an investigation into the incident to unravel its cause.

"We have since begun an investigation into the matter with a view to unravelling the circumstances that may have led to the incident," he said.

According to a witness who pleaded anonymity, Mr Adesco, 65, who was a famous hunter in the community, had a misunderstanding with the deceased woman earlier in the morning.

He said that the late Adesco committed the crime in the afternoon after the woman returned from the farm.

He said that people from Aradhe/ Ovrode community of Delta, the deceased woman`s place, had gone to inquire about the cause of their daughter`s death.

The unfortunate that was described as a double tragedy, grounded business and social activities in the community for over three hours as the people rushed to the scene to have a glimpse of the incident.
