Internally Displaced Persons' (IDPs) camp in Monguno, Borno State, was on Thursday razed by fire with several children reportedly killed.

The fire started about 11:30a.m and gutted the entire settlement, which provided shelter to hundreds of persons displaced by Boko Haram insurgency.

The cause of the inferno was yet to be identified as at the time of going to press.

The Monguno IDP camp houses many displaced persons from several communities around the Lake Chad Basin.
