Onitsha – A 23-year-old lady identified as Oluchukwu Ezeobi, from Nanka, Orumba North Local Government Area of Anambra State, has lost her life to unknown assailants.

Information has it that Miss Ezeobi was having her usual morning walk around Emma Nnaemeka area within Ziks Avenue, in Awka when two boys accosted her and ordered her to hand over her cell phone to them but she resisted them.

The source said it was during their struggle over the cell phone that the 23-year-old was stabbed severally and was left to struggle in the pool of her own blood while the assailants dispossessed her of her cell phone and fled the scene.

Contacting the Police Public Relations Officer, PPRO, SP Haruna Mohammed, who said he got confirmation of the development from the Divisional Police Officer of the Central Police Station, CPS Awka, who told him that the incident took place in the early hours Tuesday, February 12, at about 6:30am.

He said the Command will conduct discreet investigation into the incident with a view to apprehend the perpetrators and bring them to justice.
