

The suspects

Two Arrested For Allegedly Killing Motorcyclist, Stealing His Motorcycle, N100,000 In Katsina

SEGUN OLANIYAN

KATSINA

The Police in katsina state have arrested two notorious armed robbery suspects for allegedly killing and stealing their victim's N100, 000 and motorcycle at Gamji forest.

Superintendent of Police, SP, Gambo Isah, the state's police command's spokesman in a statement made available to newsmen in katsina, said the duo were arrested when the victim's motorcycle was recovered from the buyer in Abuja.

Police gave names of the suspects as Dauda Abdulkadir, 20, and Abdullahi Shuaibu, 20, both of Unguwar

Bako village, Sabuwa, Local Government Area of katsina state.

"The suspects armed with dangerous weapons attacked and killed the victim one, Aminu Hamisu, 25-year-old of Unguwar Doro village, Dandume LGA at Gamji Forest before carting away with his money and Boxer motorcycle valued at two hundred and fifty thousand naira (N250,000:00K)".

The statement added that, the suspects had sold the said motorcycle in Abuja but nemesis caught up with them when the motorcycle was recovered from one Tukur at Zuba, Abuja.

However the suspects have confessed to the crime and investigation is ongoing.