

Gunmen Kill Army Garrison Commander In Bauchi

SUZAN EDEH

BAUCHI

Bauchi has been thrown under a pall of anxiety after gunmen killed Col. Mohammed Barack, the Garrison Commander of 33 Artillery Brigade of Nigerian Army, Shadawanka Barracks, Bauchi, on Sunday.

It was gathered that the incident took place along the Bauchi-Jos Road while the deceased was riding a power bike from Kaduna.

It was learnt at the time of filing this report that preparations were in top gear to convey his corpse to Kano for burial in accordance with Islamic traditions.

When contacted over the development, the spokesperson of 33 Artillery Brigade, Major Yahaya Nasir Kabara, confirmed the incident, saying Col. Mohammed Barack was killed by gunmen.

He said investigation was ongoing, and that more information would be made available when the findings were out.