

Police Kill Four Suspected Kidnappers In Taraba

By Xavier NDANYONGMONG - July 30, 2019

0

The Taraba Police Command yesterday Monday confirmed the killing of four suspected kidnappers by policemen in Bali Local Government Area (LGA) of the state.

David Misal, DSP, the Police Public Relations' Officer in the state disclosed this while speaking with newsmen in Jalingo.

Misal said that the suspected kidnappers were killed in their camp located on the mountain top in Kungana area of the LGA.

"The DPO of Bali received a tip off that the kidnappers who have been operating within the area were hiding on the mountains, we quickly mobilised the police and vigilante groups.

"On getting to the camp, there was a serious gun battle which led to the death of four of the suspected kidnappers," he said.

Misal, explained that a Dane gun, charms, pot of soup, solar panel and ammunition were recovered from the kidnappers' den.

The News Agency of Nigeria (NAN) reports that the incident happened in less than one week after the command constituted a Special Anti- Kidnapping Squad comprising operatives of the Special Anti- Robbery Squad and the Mobile Police Unit.(NAN)

Previous article

Forty Suspected Criminals Arrested
In Ogun Forest, Seven Kidnapped
Victims Rescued

Next article

Elton John Celebrates 29 Years Of Sobriety

Xavier NDANYONGMONG

<http://Independent.ng>

RELATED ARTICLES MORE FROM AUTHOR

Forty Suspected Criminals Arrested In Ogun
Forest, Seven Kidnapped Victims Rescued

EFCC Nabs Kwara Director, Others Over Alleged
N2bn SME Fraud
