Detectives of Ondo State Police Command are after a woman who allegedly tortured her four-year-old daughter to death in Akure, the state capital, and escaped with her corpse.

Woman Tortures Daughter, 4, To Death, Escapes With Corpse

Spokesman to the command, Femi Joseph, a Superintendent of Police, confirmed the incident. He disclosed that operatives of the command were on the trail of the suspect, who is currently at large, to know what actually led to the death of the victim. The police image-maker said: "We have already sent in some officers to go and investigate the case to know what actually went wrong." The woman, whose identity is yet uncertain, in the early hours of Thursday allegedly tortured her daughter to the point that she passed out and rushed her to Ondo State University Teaching Hospital, Akure Annex where she was confirmed dead. Some officials at the hospital disclosed that the woman slipped away with the corpse of the girl from the Children's Outpatients Department (COPD) of the hospital where she was attended to. One of the staffers who spoke on condition of anonymity revealed that "the woman brought in the girl to the hospital at the children's emergency ward for treatment. "As we tried to attend to her, we noticed that she had maltreated the girl to the point of death. "If you saw the body of
