ABEOKUTA – A 34-year-old man, Faruk Seidu, has been arrested by men of Ogun State Police Command along with three other accomplices for allegedly kidnapping and killing his seven-year-old nephew, AbdulMalik Musa.

Seidu popularly called ‘Dealer’ was said to have kidnapped the boy after his father Abdul- hammed Musa, allegedly declined sponsoring his third marriage.

Seidu, who had married twice, was said to have lost the two wives to death and divorce. Parading the suspects, the Ogun State Police Public Relations Officer, PPRO, Abimbola Oyeyemi, said the uncle, who was very familiar with the boy, kidnapped him while demanding ransom of N5 million.

Oyeyemi, said after negotiation, the kidnappers agreed to collect N300,000, which was delivered to them with the aid of the police.

He said the boy was eventually killed when it was evident on them that the deceased would recognise two of them.

“This is a case of a breakthrough in respect of an adoption and murder, what is happening here is the height of inhumanity to man.

“On 11th of this month, a case of adoption was reported at one of our division, Sabo Division in Ilupeju.

“About 24 hours after, the kidnappers made a request of N5 million and we asked the family to play along with them and later they agreed to take N300,000 and after payment they still killed the boy and throw his corpse into the river.

“I want to appeal to the members of the public to trust nobody because if a brother can do this to his brother who should then be trusted?. But, I want to sound a serious warning to criminals in the state and I will be borrowing from the words of the Governor, when he said, hell fire will be more conducive for criminals than Ogun state.”

As at the time Daily Independent visited, the remains of the boy was seen floating inside Ogun River at Lafenwa end of the river.

One of the suspects Hassan Usain, who confessed to the crime, said t Seidu contracted them to kidnap the boy before he personally killed him because he recognized him.

“He (pointing at Seidu) is a brother to Alhaji (the deceased father) he said he wanted to marry the third wife and Alhaji refused to give him money so he asked us to kidnap the boy.

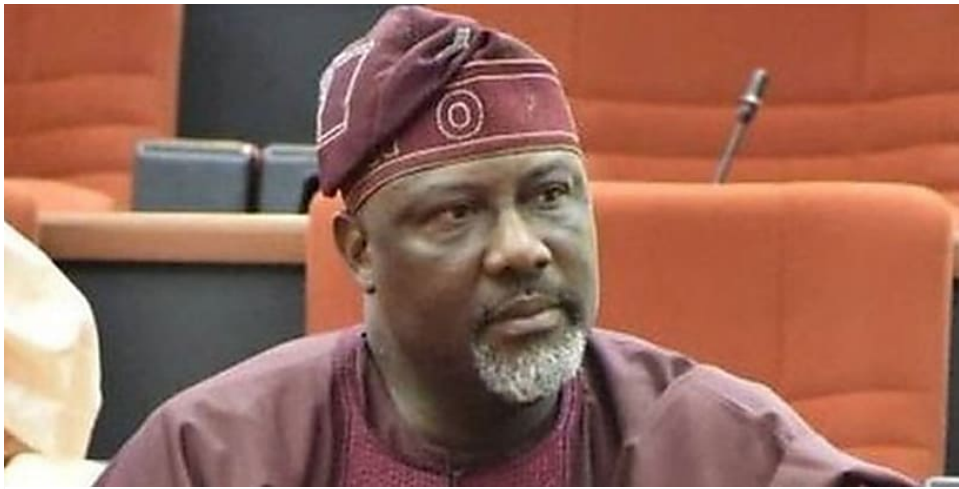

“After Alhaji gave us money, Seidu came and said he was going to kill the boy because he could recognise any of us and I said no but he never listened to me.”
