

house address was not pro-

He said that the defendant

Law of Lagos State 2015.

One Killed, PDP Youth Leader, Three Others Injured In Ibadan Crash

suburb of Ibadan, the Oyo State capital, when the accident occurred.

Also in the vehicle was the youth leader of the Peoples Democratic party (PDP) in the state, Adekola Adeoye, and three others who are in intensive care at undisclosed hospital.

A source told Daily Independent that the driver of the commercial vehicle had complained that he was weak when he got to Akure and wanted to take a short sleep and the deceased, who said he could drive took over the steering and the tyre bust while in motion leading to the accident.

A friend of the deceased, who simply identified himself as Comrade Moyor, said, "The deceased was a NANS national stakeholder and hailed from Fiditi, Oyo," adding that his death was a huge slap to the family of activist.

The sector commander of the Federal Road Safety Corps, Mrs. Uche Chukura, who confirmed, the incident told Daily Independent that there was no causality at the time of rescuing the victims, adding that the command would give back to the media after its follow up service on Friday.

"It is true there was accident at Adegbayi this morning and our men rescued the victims. As at the time of the incident, there was no causality but I'll get back to you on Friday when we do our follow up," she said.