I Killed Her For Being Pregnant For Me –Suspect

A 29-year-old man, Mustapha Idris, from Ringim Local Government Area of Jigawa State has been arrested by the police for killing his 20-year-old girlfriend, Nafisa Hashimu.

The suspect has confessed to the crime saying that he killed her for being pregnant for him since they were not married.

Mr. Idris, said he killed Hashimu after she told him she was three months pregnant.

DAILY INDEPENDENT gathered that the two lived in the same apartment at Daneji village of Jigawa before the murder.

Speaking to reporters on Friday from his police cell the suspect said he killed his girlfriend to avoid the shame of giving birth outside wedlock.

“I am ashamed of how the society will see us after she delivers the unborn child out of wedlock, and thus I decided to terminate her life to stay away from shame,” he said.

Audu Jinjiri, spokesperson of Jigawa Police Command, said the corpse of the deceased was found in her pool of blood in a bush at the outskirts of Daneji village about 22 kilometres from Ringim town.

Jinjiri said police preliminary investigation revealed that the deceased was a divorcee and was confirmed dead by a medical doctor before she was released to relatives for burial.

He said the suspect would be charged to court to face the wrath of the law immediately after police investigations.

Lawmaker In Pep Talk With Araromi Baptist School Pupils In Lagos

XAVIER NDAH

Prince Kayode Akiolu, Lawmaker representing Lagos Constituency II, on Monday paid a visit to schools in Lagos where he sought to encourage pupils to be responsible in the society.

Akiolu visited Araromi Baptist Nursery and Primary School, and Ereko Methodist School, Lagos Island, where he gave Pep talk to the pupils.

Prince Akiolu who kick-started with ‘snack 4 thought’ initiative of the Governor of Lagos State, Mr. Babajide Sanwo-Olu, met with various pupils in their classes.

He assured the pupils of keeping to his campaign promises by provision of a continuous free holiday coaching which kicked off in August/September 2019.

The member representing Lagos Island II since 2019, plans to provide some basic school provision for the school children. He asked them to suggest what they need in their schools and what would make their learning experience a joyous one.

Some of the proposed items needed were school books, stationery, and computers.

He assured the pupils on his already in motion plans to provide free laptops to schools soon.

As he made plans to leave the classroom, a pupil held his hand and whispered, “Sir, please we need toilet.”

Hon. Kayode who made known his quick observa-
