KANO

A Kano State High Court on Monday condemned a 22-year-old man to death by hanging.

The convict, Ibrahim Suleiman, a resident of Kaya quarters in Gaya Local Government, Kano, was first arraigned before the court, February 5, 2019, on a one-count charge of culpable homicide, punishable with death.

The State prosecutor, Lamido Soron Dinki, told the court that, Ibrahim Suleiman had on June 5, 2018, at about 7:30 am used a stick to strike a five-year-old girl named Bilkisu Garba on her head.

He further stated that Bilkisu Garba died as a result of the injury inflicted on her by Ibrahim.

The prosecution summoned three witnesses, Jamila Zubairu, Inspector Abubakar Adamu, and Chinda Chiwa who testified in the case.

The prosecution tendered a stick, medical report and the confessional statements made to the police by the convict.

Ibrahim, represented by Barrister Mustapha Id-ris, denied the allegation that was slammed against him.
