

Oyo LG Crisis: One Dead, Many Injured In Ogbomoso

By Agency Report - February 3, 2020

The lingering crisis rocking local government administration in Oyo State took another dimension on Monday as one person was killed and several others injured.

The friction was between the loyalists of the All People's Congress (APC) and those of the Peoples Democratic Party (PDP).

An eyewitness said several dangerous weapons were on display during the fracas.

It was gathered that the deceased simply identified as Alajase is a member of the PDP from Surulere Local Government Area.

The Chairman of Ogbomoso North LG Honourable Olamiju Alao Akala had early in the morning said that he was attacked by hoodlums believed to be supporters of PDP while the Caretaker Chairman, Hon Ibrahim Ajagbe, the PDP Chairman in Ogbomoso North said Lamiju-led thugs to disperse them away from the Secretariat.

Ajagbe said eight people who were injured by the APC loyalists have been taken to hospital.

Details Later...