He said the corpse was evacuated to the hospital for post a mortem examination.

Elkana said, "The suspect was arrested and the knife she used in stabbing the deceased person was recovered.

"In her statement, the suspect said, the deceased person, who is her father's friend, invited her to his house to assist him in fetching water, as he lives in the house alone.

"That she has always been helping him with the house chores. That while she was helping out with the water on 7/3/2020, he attempted raping her. That she picked a knife from the room and stabbed him."
