“In the same vein, troops engaged some bandits who attacked Julee village and rustled goats.

“The bandits came under the fierce firepower of the troops, abandoned the goats and fled into the forest.

“The troops recovered the goats and handed over to the owners.

“Similarly, troops on patrol at Nasarrawa village, close to Tunga Haki in Gusau Local Government Area intercepted nine suspected bandits and recovered 600 cows and 300 sheep.

“After due interrogation, the bandits confessed to have rustled the animals and were proceeding to Zaria, to avert possible arrest by the troops,” he said.
