A concerned citizen who shared a video of the incident on her Instagram page, @originaltombo, said the incident happened in the early hours of Tuesday.

The eye-witness recounted that the siblings just returned to the scene of the accident to help their mother said to be selling food items nearby, before they were run over by a vehicle which plied against traffic.

“I visited the scene of this accident at Sangotedo this morning that claimed the lives of three siblings who returned to assist their mother who sells food items nearby after the morning walk out,” the witness said. close

“There’s need for our Governor Babajide Sanwo-Olu, to ensure that the Lagos State Traffic Management Agency (LASEMA), are more effective in their day to day activities and punish traffic offenders,” the eye witness added.
