Friday Okoloba

UGHELLI – There was pandemonium on Monday morning at Aladja, Udu Local Government Area of Delta State, following the killing of a 30-year-old man in a clash between two rival cult groups.

The victim identified as Mr. Friday Okoloba hails from Aladja and was killed at Ekrewhare Street in Aladja town.

Sources close to the scene of the incident told DAILY INDEPENDENT that Friday was a member Aye Cult and they were overpowered during a clash with a rival cult group.

In a chat with Aladja Community President, Hon. Otto Ogbiruveta, said they were working in collaboration with security agents to ensure that such incident does not occur again.

He noted that they were already on the tail of those who carried out the heinous crime.

“So we are working with the security agents to ensure that they are arrested and prosecuted according to the laws of the land,” he said.

He stressed that they were doing everything possible to ensure that they eradicate secret cults from Aladja community, as it has no advantage to those who join.

He advised youths to stay away from cultism as it would only destroy their future and life.

“For those who have joined cult, we don’t see anything they gained from it. At the end, they either pay with their lives because when you kill by the sword, you die by it,” he added.
