

Home > News > Metro >

Woman Laments Alleged Killing Of Brother By SARS In Delta

By Sunday Apah

On Jun 24, 2020 2:00 AM

METRO

Late Efe Radio

UGHELLI – A woman, Mrs. Beauty Shokare, yesterday lamented the alleged unlawful killing of her elder brother, Mr. Efe Radio by men of the Delta State Anti-Robbery Squad (SARS).

The brother, who was a commercial driver, shuttling Ughelli and Bayelsa, was said to have been killed along with seven others of Bayelsa State Anti-Robbery Squad around Eruemukohwarien, Ughelli North Local Government Area of Delta State.

The woman called on the Inspector General of Police and the Delta Police Commissioner to release the corpse of his elder brother and the Toyota picnic bus with number plate, MUS 761 AT.

Narrating her ordeal to newsmen why crying, she said she fainted about two Saturdays ago, when she got a call that her elder brother, Efe, had been killed by men of the Delta State Anti-Robbery Squad.

She said few days later, rumour started filtering into town that those that were killed along with her brother were members of the Bayelsa State Anti-Robbery Squad, who were on official assignment and were on their way to Warri when they were ambushed and killed in cold blood.

The deceased, late Efe Radio, according to her, had four children and managing a Toyota picnic bus for commercial transport at Otovwodo Motor Park, Ughelli, and was on charter, conveying the men of the SARS from Bayelsa to Warri when he was killed along with seven others.

Speaking further, she said, “My elder brother is not a police officer but a commercial driver from the popular Otovwodo Motor Park, using Toyota picnic bus with number plate, MUS 761 AT, belonging to one Mr. Monday Umurhohwo.

“I am appealing to both the Inspector General of Police and the Delta State Commissioner of Police and both state and federal government to ensure justice prevails while we demand for immediate release of my brother’s corpse and commercial bus.”

The owner of the Toyota picnic bus, Mr. Monday Umurhohwo, who also spoke to newsmen on the incident said on that day he went to the Ughelli ‘A’ Divisional Police Station to lay complaint that the driver of his picnic bus was also killed and till date nothing had been said about it.

Sunday Apahclose

Sunday Apah is a correspondent with Independent Newspapers.

This site uses Akismet to reduce spam. Learn how your comment data is processed.

About Us Advertise With Us Privacy Policy Contact Us

© 2001 - 2020. Independent Newspapers Nigeria. All Rights Reserved.

Site Managed By The Online Team | Sitemap