

Despite the on going military operations to tackle bandits operating in the state, dare devil bandits have killed 15 people in an attack on ‘Yar Gamji village of Batsari local government in Katsina state.

SP Gambo Isah, the katsina Police Public Relations Officer who confirmed the incident stated that, the bandits numbering over 200 riding on motorcycles attack the village around 10:00 am on Sunday.

Isah said the bandits on arriving the village started shooting sporadically during which they killed these people and injured several others.

According to him, security agencies operating in that area mobilised and chased away the bandits before they could cause more damages.

It could be recalled that there was an on going security operations by the Nigeria Army to root out bandits in the state.