

CRIME TRACKER

Police Arrest Man Who Allegedly Killed His Son

CHUKWUJEKWU ILOZUE
AWKA

The Anambra State Police Command said, it has arrested a middle aged man who allegedly killed his son and buried the corpse in a shallow grave in his compound.

In a statement, the police said, on July 9 at about 3:21:pm, police operatives attached to Azia Police Station, in Ihiala local council area arrested one Mr. Christian Alisigwe aged 35 years of ihite Azia in Ihiala local council area.

Alisigwe was alleged to have used a cutlass to kill his own biological son, four years old Ebubechukwu Alisigwe of the same address and buried the corpse in a shallow grave at his compound.

The police detectives visited the scene, exhumed the corpse and deposited same at Abam motuary for autopsy after it was certified dead by a medical doctor.

Currently, the case has been transferred to State CID Awka for discreet investigation, please

Alisigwe