ASABA – One person has been confirmed dead while three others were injured in a ghastly motor accident that occurred at Afiesere, Ughelli-North Local Government Area of Delta State.

An eye witness revealed that the incident took place in the late hours of Saturday as an alleged ‘Yahoo boy’ who was driving in his Lexus car rammed into a bread seller.

It was gathered that the Lexus car was at high speed in bid to flee the vehicle it had hit.

The eyewitness named Rejoice Nwachukwu said, “The car skidded off the road due to high speed and rammed into a bread vendor, killing her on the spot.

It was gathered that the three occupants of the Lexus car including the driver were in critical condition while the bread seller was confirmed dead on the spot.

Among the occupants of Lexus car was a pregnant woman who was also rushed to the hospital in a critical condition.

When contacted Public Relations Officer (PPRO), Delta State Command, Federal Road Safety Corps, Mr. Kenneth Ogbonna, said the accident was not reported to the rescue team in Ughelli.
