

Owoade said that the second accident, which was as a result of tyre burst, happened at Lakanla bridge, and “eight persons were involved, one person died and another injured.”

He said that the corpses had been deposited at the University of Ilorin Teaching Hospital morgue and those who got injures were receiving treatment.

The sector commander cautioned motorists against night journeys and reckless driving in the interest of their lives and that of the passengers.