

[GRAPHIC IMAGE] Alleged Electricity Cable Thief Electrocuted In Enugu

By Patience Ogbodo - Iwu... On Sep 16, 2020 5:42 PM

FEATURED

CRIME TRACKER

LATEST NEWS

Enugu – An alleged electricity cable thief has been electrocuted while trying to vandalize a transformer located at Obinagu-Nchatancha in Emene, Enugu metropolis.

According to a statement made available to Journalists in Enugu on Wednesday by Daniel Ndukwe, Police Public Relation Officer of the state Command said the lifeless body of the 25 years old suspect was taken to the hospital where he was confirmed dead and deposited in the mortuary.

Alleged Electricity Cable Thief Electrocuted in Enugu.

He said: “The Enugu State Command of the Nigeria Police Force wishes to inform the general public, especially residents of the State, that a yet to be identified young man of about 25 years of age was found electrocuted on 14/09/2020 at about 6:20pm, while allegedly attempting to vandalize an Enugu Electricity Distribution Company (EEDC) Electric Transformer located at Obinagu-Nchatancha, Emene.

“The lifeless body of the suspect was taken to the hospital where he was confirmed dead and deposited in the mortuary.

