

Gun Battle: Police Kill 6 Car Snatchers In A'Ibom

By Idongesit Ashameri On Oct 2, 2020 5:33 PM

FEATURED CRIME TRACKER LATEST NEWS

Uyo – Men of the Nigeria Police Force, Akwa Ibom State Command has killed a six-man armed robbery gang that specialized in car snatching and selling across Akwa Ibom and Cross River States.

The operation was made public by the State Commissioner of Police (CP), Amienheme Andrew, while parading the remains of the dead robbers at the State Police Headquarters, Ikot Akpanabia, Uyo on Friday.

Andrew said the robbers met their death during a shootout with the Police along the Calabar-Itu highway.

He explained that the dead robbers were on their way to Abia state to sell the car they had earlier snatched from a Calabar based Medical Doctor when they met a patrol team of the state command of the Police.

The CP said the deceased were said to have already contacted a buyer for the stolen vehicle.